What?

A fun factual video adventure for young minds!

26 x 30 min High Definition Series

This series fulfills a young child's fascination and curiosity for the world around them. Each topic is presented in an easy to understand live-action format that builds a foundation for further exploration and educational opportunities.

What is it? • Why does it exist? • How does it work?
What does it do? • Why is it like that?

Every episode is driven by questions that children often ask and dazzling video images that help answer those questions. Viewers are drawn in with visits to fascinating locations and easy to understand explanations. The pilot episode Energy – Electricity takes viewers on an adventure to learn what energy is all about, how electricity is produced and how it gets to our homes.
